George Miller of Richmond, Ind., was calling on the hardware trade here Monday.

Wm. Wetherowe and wife of Tawneytown, Md., are visiting relatives and friends in this city and vicinity.

Probate Judge Boli and daughter Pearl were visitors in Columbus last week, where Mr. Boli attended a meeting of the probate judges of Ohio.

Walter Bratschi of Fort Jefferson, who had a foot badly mangled a few days ago at the Greenville Gravel Co.'s pit, is getting along very nicely and it is not now thought that amputation will be necessary.

The funeral of Mrs. Kate Gard Arnold, wife of Wilson Arnold, who died on the morning of January 11, was held Saturday afternoon at their residence on East Main street, and burial was made in Greenville cemetery.

A final report has been made by Referee Katzenberger in the case of W. E. and Eldora O. Deal, bankrupts. Their liabilities were $6454.53, and assets totalling $3722.99, of which unsecured creditors received nothing.

The overflowed prairie west of town, afforded excellent skating for the young people last week following the cold wave which froze the water solid and many took advantage of it and enjoyed the winter's sport for several days.

Frank Payne, the tailor, went into bankruptcy last week, giving his assets as $700 and liabilities $1800. W. H. Ehrstine, railroad machinist, of Bradford, also filed a bankrupt petition. His assets are given as nothing, with liabilities of $2000.

Mrs. Stanley Hartzell, 25 years old, residing in Pikeville, died of pneumonia on Wednesday night of last week, leaving her husband, a son and daughter, and her parents, Frank Cole and wife. Funeral services were held Saturday and burial made in Greenville cemetery.

The case of the State of Ohio on relation of Uarda Shuttleworth, nineteen years old, against Andrew Johnson—a married man, in whose family the Shuttleworth girl worked—on a charge of bastardy, was tried in court here last Thursday and a verdict of guilty returned by a jury. The court has decreed that he pay the plaintiff $350.

Reuben Brewer, 63 years old, died on Wednesday evening of last week in his farm home, a mile south of Stelvideo. Three children survive him—Mrs. Frances Ashman, who lived at home; Mrs. Etta Powell, residing near Bradford; and Edward Brewer, living near Stelvideo. Funeral services were held Saturday and burial made in the Coppess cemetery.

Lawrence Stockum, a young man living with his parents near Arcanum, again became violently insane last Sunday and on Monday was taken to the asylum for the third time. He was committed there in 1907 and again in 1911. Saturday he took up the register in an upstairs room and crawled down the pipe, somewhat injuring himself, and had bitten his brother severely.

Wm. Beisner, a prosperous farmer, 48 years old, who had been suffering for some time with a nervous ailment, died in his home in Richland township Saturday. He leaves his wife, three children—Elmer, Harry and Velma, all living at home. Funeral was held Wednesday morning at St. John's Lutheran church on the Versailles pike and burial made in adjoining cemetery.

The Darke County Agricultural Society finally adjusted the difficulties of the members last Monday, and an organization effected by dividing up the offices as was originally proposed by the new members. Of the old members, Ed Ammon was elected president and J. E. Fulkerth secretary. The new members were given the vice presidency by electing C. C. Hall to that office and C. F. Bliss was elected treasurer. All differences were amicably adjusted and all will now work for a bigger and better county fair this year than ever.

The Court of Appeals has reversed the case of Clara Mangen versus Wm. Brierly of Union City and the case is to be given a rehearing. It was tried last spring before Judge Mathers of Sidney in court here and the jury returned a verdict for $500 exemplary damages, which Judge Mathers decided the defendant did not have to pay to Mrs. Mangen. The Court of Appeals has decided that Judge Mathers should not have disregarded the verdict of the jury. The trial was for $10,000, money claimed to have been lost by Thomas Mangen in Brierly's gambling place in Union City.

Some weather was experienced here last week. On Tuesday night we had rain and sleet, and on Wednesday heavy rains, accompanied by thunder and lightning and a temperature of 65 degrees. As a result of the rains Greenville creek overflowed again, the adjacent bottom lands being covered with water. Wednesday night it began turning cold and the thermometer dropped to about 5 above zero by Thursday morning, a change of 60 degrees in a few hours. On Friday morning a temperature of about 2 above zero was recorded. Still another cold wave struck on Sunday night and the temperature went to 2 degrees below zero Monday morning, the coldest of the winter so far.

Upon our roll of honor today we can place the following named patrons:

Obituary.

Eli Hess was born near Brock, Ohio, July 14, 1851, and departed this life January 9, 1916, aged 64 years, 5 months and 25 days. He was married to Miss Jane Burns on December 11, 1873, and to this union were born three sons—Clarence N., Elmer and Jonas A.; and one daughter—Emma Hess Naylor of New Pittsburgh, Ind. Two sons, Clarence N. and Elmer, preceded the father to the spirit world. He leaves a widow, one son, one daughter, two brothers—John Hess, residing near North Star, Ohio, and Marion Hess of Dayton, Ohio; also, two grandchildren—David R., son of Clarence N. Hess, and Garold A., son of Jonas A. Hess. The funeral was held in the Christian church at Brock, Ohio, Elder B. E. Warren of Springfield, O., officiating. The discourse was a scriptural and philosophical exegesis of the subject of life and death. The family desires to express their thanks to the neighbors and friends for their kindness and sympathy during their bereavement.

Life's silver cord is broken now, Earth's tender ties are sundered all, Death's icy blast has struck the tree And caused its leaves to fade and fall, But memory will ever keep Her silent vigil through the years, Turn back the pages of the past To mingle sunshine with our tears.

Democracy for "Foreigners First."

Preaching "America First" and practicing "Foreigners First," is a policy that will embarrass the Democrats when they come to defend their record next fall. In the ten months of Democratic tariff rates preceding the outbreak of the war, our imports of meat and dairy products increased to $40,545,000 as compared with $12,460,000 in the corresponding ten months under the Republican tariff. Imports under Democratic policies were more than three times as great as under Republican policies. We gave the foreigner greater access to our markets, and yet the cost of living did not decrease. The American farmer is forgetful of some things, but he will remember these figures when he makes up his mind how to vote next November. The figures are from official reports.

"Maybe Champ Clark is sorry now that he advised young men to go south."

"Why do you think so?"
"The day after he gave out that interview in Chicago a young bank cashier went south with a large sum of money."

No Extra Session of the Legislature.

When Governor Willis announced that he would not call an extraordinary session of the General Assembly to discuss taxation matters, he pleased ninety-nine per cent of the people of Ohio.

This state has had more than its share of sessions of the General Assembly during the past decade. Only once in recent years was the state spared an annual session, and during that off-year a constitutional convention was in session.

Sessions of the General Assembly, as a rule, is anti-business legislation. Business is entitled to a rest and gives thanks to the Governor for his announcement. —Ohio Journal of Commerce.

YOUNG FOLKS' CORNER

King Frost at Work.

When you get up on a cold winter's morning haven't you noticed the wonderful pictures King Frost has put on your windows while you have been asleep? If you look at these pictures closely you will see that they are made up of long, feathery frost ferns.

Now, these ferns consist of thousands of little crystals of frost, so small that it takes 10,000 of them to cover a penny, and in the process of freezing they have drawn together so as to form a pattern.

The heat of your room and the coldness of the outside air have caused a mist to gather on the window pane, and if you examine this mist under a microscope you will find that it is nothing more than tiny drops of water.

Presently as the cold becomes more intense each of these drops freezes into a little crystal, which is called an "ice flower," and each crystal usually has six points. There are more than 2,000 kinds of crystals, and they all go toward the making of King Frost's picture.

If the frost is very keen then the pattern of his picture will be a coarse one. If there is little frost it will be a fine one. But King Frost is a wonderful artist, for he never makes two pictures alike, though he produces millions every winter.

A Skeptic.
An obstinate old Daytonian who was looking up one still afternoon at the Wright biplane circling smoothly and steadily through the air said: "When people first told me about this here flyer I called 'em liars. Then when I read about it in the papers I said it was a fake." The old man, watching the biplanes moving in great curves like lazy birds, shook his head thoughtfully. "By crissus!" he said. "I ain't what ye mount call convinced yet, nuthin'."

Circumstantial Evidence.
Mrs. Clarke came running hurriedly into her husband's office one morning. "Oh, Dick," she cried as she gasped for breath, "I dropped my diamond ring off my finger and I can't find it anywhere."
"It's all right, Bess," replied Mr. Clarke. "I came across it in my trousers pocket." —New York Times.

A HUMAN MENAGERIE.

Her "lamb" his mother called him when he was a toddler small. His nunny "little monkey" his wee nephew used to call.
He grew up fat and awkward, to the girls "a great big calf." At college he was "my young dog." They said it with a laugh.
He entered next the Stock Exchange, and there he was a "bear."
As he was shrewd, one said of him, "A sly fox, I declare!"
Making a coup sensational, a "lion" he became.
"A mean skunk" some men said who lost and on him placed the blame.
Later from "bear" he turned to "bull," a foolish step that.
He dropped his entire fortune and was frankly dubbed an "ass."
